

i want to smile
and make people smile
i want to move
and be moved

i want to radiate
love and compassion
and peace and light
and gratitude

i want to cherish
the wealth all around
and within me
aware - i
am
free

i want to sing
and to listen to share
what i'm given
i want to learn
i want to be

open engaging
grateful for ageing writing whatever there comes

dancing
on pavement
- no self-effacement
laughing and playing the drums

i
want to be honest
and patient
knowing your name and curious bout who you are living today|to daze

in every way and making some beautiful
art

i want to ask
all the questions i can they're gonna make sense of themselves

i want to leave
what became
through my hand
to who(m)ever is somebody
else

i want to live = die with delight in contentment
unbentment
and bliss

i want to say the word - i -
thinking of
all the life
on earth
for you
this is.
